Made-to-order life insurance

A company that pays out more than two million dollars every hour of the working day? Sound fantastic—but there is such a company. It's Metropolitan Life . . . and the people who get the money are policyholders and beneficiaries. Metropolitan insures one out of five persons in the U.S. and Canada. That's because Metropolitan does more for them. Metropolitan's representatives help you figure, in plain dollars and cents,

You'll need insurance someday... so start now when it costs less.
